Dear Mr. Kahn:

What a magnificant job you have done in "The World of Swope!" It is such a faithful portrayal. Herbert, I am sure, would have been delighted to have done such a book. It must be a great joy to his beloved Maggie to have this story of her great husband. What a team they were! Charles J.V. Murphy, at his home last week, praised the book highly in a discussion we had with John Davenport. Great writing!

I enclose a letter I wrote to M. Lincoln Shuster who, with you, deserves a laurel wreath.

More power to you and to your most brilliant writing.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
